

School Participatory Budgeting

GROWING CROSS-CURRICULAR CIVIC LEARNING IN YOUR SCHOOL

Professional Development for Educators

June 15, 2021

9:00 am - 12:00 pm
Online Zoom Workshop

Registration deadline is April 30. Capacity is limited.

REGISTER

School Participatory Budgeting (School PB) is an innovative pedagogical tool that empowers students to 'learn democracy by doing' by deciding how to allocate funds to improve their school community. Watch this short video to learn more.

PARTICIPANTS:

- K-12 educators interested or implementing School PB
- Educators from Arizona have registration priority but all educators are encouraged to register

PARTICIPANTS WILL GAIN:

- Three Recertification Hours
- Methods for implementing School PB with an inclusivity focus
- Cross-participant learning and the building of a School PB network
- Inclusivity Toolkit with five promising practices, lesson plans, and evaluation tools
- Connections to Arizona State Standards

This workshop is offered at no cost thanks to the generous support of the Arizona Developmental Disabilities Planning Council (ADDPC).

Participatory Governance Initiative

ASU Arizona State University

CONTACT

Madison Rock

Program Coordinator, Civic Health Initiatives
Center for the Future of Arizona
madison.rock@arizonafuture.org | 602.496.2514

CENTER FOR THE FUTURE OF ARIZONA